UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT
FOR THE NORTHERN DISTRICT OF ALABAMA
NORTHERN DIVISION

In the Matter of:

Belle Foods, LLC

Debtor(s)

Case No. 13-81963-JAC-11

Chapter 11

ORDER

It appears to the Court that the below entitled pleading is deficient for the reason marked:

Motion to Lift Stay filed by Donna Landis

- ☐ Certificate of service does not indicate that the pleading was served pursuant to Bankruptcy Rules 9014 and 7004. (Registered agent, officer, name of person signing claim, etc.)
- ☐ Modification - Certificate of service must indicate service on all creditors as per the clerk's certified matrix and must also indicate service on the creditor directly affected, i.e. mortgage company (Registered agent, officer, name of person signing claim, etc.)
- ☐ Please file amended certificate of service indicating service on all creditors and specifically on affected creditor.
- ☒ The pleading did not contain a certificate of service indicating service. Bankruptcy Rule 4001 requires in Chapter 11 cases that motions to lift must be served on any committee or if no committee has been appointed on the 20 largest creditors. Please file a certificate of service relating to the motion.
- ☐ Bankruptcy Rule 9014 requires that the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure concerning discovery apply in contested matters and adversary proceedings. The court does not issue an order to compel until rules of discovery are complied with. Motion is returned herewith.
- ☐ A corporate entity cannot practice law and must be represented by a licensed attorney. Please have attorney re-file pleading and indicate service on the correct parties.
- ☒ Other: It appears that the motion was filed in duplicate. Please file a corrective entry or a withdrawal of the motion filed as docket #452 as the filing fee paid relates to docket #453.

If the deficiency is not corrected within 14 days of the date of the entry of this order, the pleading shall be dismissed.

Dated: September 9, 2013
